Alexander Hamilton

George Washington's Indispensable Partner

with

Rand Scholet

Founder & President, The Alexander Hamilton Awareness Society

Thursday, July 13, 2017 7:00 pm

at the Tompkins Corners Cultural Center
729 Peekskill Hollow Rd. • Putnam Valley, NY 10579

Artillery commander and senior aide to General George Washington during the Revolution, post-war Congressman from New York, promoter of the U.S. Constitution, Treasury Secretary and creator of the nation's financial system, the Federalist Party, the Bank of New York, and the United States Coast Guard (not to mention the New York Post), Hamilton's guiding hand can be seen throughout the founding of our new nation. Perhaps George Washington himself would never have become the Washington we know and revere today, were it not for his Indispensable Partner, Alexander Hamilton.

The program will include a re-enactment of the infamous duel between Former Treasury Secretary Alexander Hamilton & Vice President Aaron Burr.

Join us, and them!

Rand Scholet

Rand Scholet is an historical analyst covering the American Revolutionary and early Constitutional periods. He has been featured as a speaker on C-SPAN, at National Park sites, and to numerous historical groups and entities including the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Society of Mayflower Descendants, the Museum of American Finance, Columbia University, and Hamilton College. He has also contributed to articles in the New York Times, AP's Big Story, CNBC, Smithsonian Magazine, the LA Times, and CNBC.

His findings in "The Essence of Alexander Hamilton's Greatness" have given audiences a fresh look at who really deserves the utmost credit for contributing to George Washington's successes, as well as the vision and foundations that have served our nation so well, for over 225 years.
