

You're invited to celebrate history and innovation!

Join Us to Honor Local Residents on Putnam County's 204th birthday.

Putnam County Day

Monday, June 13, 2016, 10:00 am

Historic Courthouse, 44 Gleneida Avenue, Carmel, NY

Please join County Executive MaryEllen Odell and County Historian Sarah Johnson, Ph.D., for this annual celebration and award ceremony in honor of the day that the New York State Legislature deeded what is today Carmel, Kent, Patterson, Philipstown, Putnam Valley and Southeast, forming Putnam County.

The 2016 Putnam County Day Awards include:

- The Exemplary Museum and Exhibition Award: Steven Miller, Executive Director, Boscobel House and Gardens, and Jennifer Carlquist, Curator, "Hudson Hewn: New York Furniture Now"
- The Innovative History Award: Melissa McGill, artist, Constellation, Bannerman's Island
- Creative & Adaptive Reuse of a Historic Structure Award: The Tompkins Corners Cultural Center
- Lifetime Achievement Award: Eric Gross, Journalist

Also celebrated on this day will be the publication anniversaries of The Putnam County Courier (175 years) and The Putnam County News and Recorder (150 years).

The county's traditional birthday cake will be cut and served in the lobby of The David D. Bruen County Office Building following the ceremony. The public is welcome, no RSVP required. For more information on this event please contact the Historian's Office at 845-808-1420 or historian@putnamcountyny.gov.

MELISSA MCGILL

Artist

ERIC GROSS

Journalist

The PUTNAM
COUNTY
NEWS
and RECORDER

The
PUTNAM COUNTY
COURIER